Fostering Fresh Thinking Shaping Impactful Encounters

Hodson's Pillar, Hodson Bay
The Historic Centre of Ireland

a meeting place with legacy.

For generations, Lough Ree, the Lake of Kings, was a meeting ground for rulers, a place where strategy was formed, and decisions shaped history. Today, Hodson Bay Hotel continues that legacy standing as one of the Midlands' premier destinations for meetings and events that drive action and leave a lasting impression.

Just as history was made here, the meeting and events we host today leave a lasting mark, driving conversations, building relationships, and pushing ideas forward.

food for thought.

We believe great food sets the tone for any gathering.

That's why we source locally, forage fresh ingredients right on the property and from nearby Yew Point, and always focus on thoughtful, flavourful options.

By partnering with trusted local suppliers and foraging herbs and seasonal vegetables right from the hotel grounds, we can ensure that each meal is built from the best of what the land has to offer. This commitment to quality and community has been at our core since 1992. If it's a quick coffee break, a sit down meal or something in between, we're here to make sure you and your guests are nourished, happy, refreshed and ready for whatever comes next.

A man and a woman are standing in a dense forest, looking at a map. The woman is on the left, wearing a light-colored jacket, and the man is on the right, wearing a dark jacket. They are surrounded by tall trees and lush green foliage. The scene is dimly lit, with sunlight filtering through the leaves.

Your team deserves more than just a meeting room to connect.

Our approach is simple! We support your team with complimentary activities with a specialist team that brings together experiences to promote team unity, well-being and encourage your team to refocus. It's not just about what happens during the meeting or event, it's about everything that happens around it to make sure your team leaves stronger, clearer, and more connected than before.
